

LAMAS 43rd ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF LONDON ARCHAEOLOGISTS
SATURDAY 25th MARCH 2006: MUSEUM OF LONDON LECTURE THEATRE

Morning session: Recent Work

11.00am Chairman's opening remarks and presentation of the Ralph Merrifield Award
Harvey Sheldon, Chair, LAMAS Archaeology Committee

11.10am Landscape archaeology in the Heathrow area
Paul McCulloch, Wessex Archaeology

11.40am A later Bronze Age site at Oliver Close, Leyton
Chris Pickard, PCA

12.00 Early Saxon settlement and Jacobean glassworking at Hammersmith
Embankment
David Jamieson, MoLAS

12.20pm A possible Tudor garden structure at Carew Manor, Beddington
John Phillips, Beddington, Carshalton & Wallington Archaeological Society

12.35pm Recent work on Cheapside
Sadie Watson, MOLAS

1.05pm LUNCH

Afternoon session: Recent work on Roman towns

2.15pm Springhead, Kent – a Roman healing centre revealed. Recent work along the route of the Channel Tunnel Rail Link
Phil Andrews, Wessex Archaeology

2.50pm Mapping Roman London
Pete Rowsome, MoLAS

3.25pm TEA

4.10pm The Roman circus at Colchester
Philip Crummy, Colchester Archaeological Trust

4.45pm The Silchester Town Life Project: the first decade of research
Mike Fulford, University of Reading

5.20pm CLOSE

There will be displays of work and publications in Access & Learning Rooms B & C

Cost (inclusive of afternoon tea) will be:

LAMAS Members ... £4.00 Non-Members ... £5.00

Ticket applications, display and general enquiries should be addressed to Jon Cotton, Early Department, Museum of London, 150 London Wall, EC2Y 5HN (jcotton@museumoflondon.org.uk)

TICKET APPLICATIONS

NAME.....

ADDRESS.....

.....

.....

.....Post Code.....

Please send me:.....ticket(s) for LAMAS Members @ £4.00 each

And/or.....tickets for Non-Members @ £5.00 each

I enclose a cheque/postal order for £..... made payable to LAMAS, and a STAMPED, SELF-ADDRESSED ENVELOPE